Since veal is a specialized meat product with limited supplies, our extensive supplier connections allow us to source the highest quality of veal available, no matter what your preferences are for cut or type.

Our offerings include chops, cutlets, Osso Buco, and various other cuts. We carry both domestic milk-fed veal with its buttery flavor, and grass-fed veal.

Ask about our imported veal products such as Canadian Rose veal and Dutch veal, which are available in limited quantities.

No matter the source of our veal we vet all suppliers for animal welfare compliance.
